

ETHICS CENTRAL

Office Of Internal Audit and Ethics

---

---

To Promote Ethical Awareness, the Office Of Internal Audit & Ethics will be sending out a quarterly newsletter. In this edition, we highlight the complaint and investigation process.

Complaint & Investigation Process

"This is a high level overview of the complaint and investigation process. For details see the Ethics Rules of Procedure".

Ethics Awareness Month

We have designated March as Ethics Awareness Month. In an effort to promote Ethical Awareness, we have partnered with the Sequoyah Fund to provide a valuable training, "Good or Bad in Whose Eyes?" This Training will be offered on March 18th at 2:00 pm at the Office of Internal Audit and Ethics. Please Contact our office no later than March 15th to RSVP for the event. Light refreshments will be provided.

ETHICS IN THE NEWS

Cobb County Sheriff Uses Children's Charity to Fund Campaign

Sheriff Warren used the children's museum charity to solicit volunteers and donations for a fundraiser that brought in thousands of dollars for his re-election efforts, while neither he nor his campaign contributed anything directly to the non-profit museum.

The Atlanta Journal Constitution

Contact Us

(828) 359-7030

(800)-455-9014

ebci-oia.com

Moral authority comes from following universal and timeless principles like honesty, integrity and treating people with respect.

- Stephen Covey